DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tam.

Tam's binary divider divides a n-bit fixed point dividend by a divisor of 2^a wherein the dividing is controlled by an adjusted divisor, note the abstract and Fig. 6a.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1; lines 13-16 are mis-descriptive because the recited ANDing and Oring are not conditionally dependent on the sign of the first summation data value, note element 16 in Fig. 2. Lines 18-20 of claim 1 are mis-descriptive because the recited adding is not dependent on the sign of the first summation data value, note elements 37 and 44 of Fig. 2. Claims 14 and 19 contain deficiencies similar to claim 1. The "multiplexer" of the last three lines of claim 8 fail to fall within the scope of the second addition circuit is defined in claim 1. In claim 10 the phrase "the multiplexer of the logic circuit" lacks clear antecedent basis. The last two lines of claim 13 are mis-descriptive because the division factor is not adjusted although the second input to adder 6 of Fig. 2 is adjusted.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-12 and 14-19 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Drawings

5. In Fig. 2 all blocks are required to be appropriately labeled so as to readily identify the elements represented.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
